Handcrafted in Ireland Since 1857

Each piece of Belleek is created by 16 individual artisans. From design to production to quality control at our historic pottery, a process that has changed very little since 1857.

Design

Belleek's dedicated team of in-house designers carry out trend and market research to bring new designs to the marketplace. Computer aided drawings and traditional drawings are produced and carefully selected.

Modelling

A three-dimensional plaster or clay model is created from the design drawings. This is an accurate reproduction of the design showing every intricate detail and surface relief.

Moulds

An initial mould will be made from the three-dimensional model, a second mould will be made from this first mould. This second mould this is called the 'case mould' and will be used to make all the subsequent working moulds. Belleek's Master Mould Chamber contains Block Moulds dating as far back as the 1860's.

Basket and Flower Making

Belleek's world famous Baskets and flowers are intricately hand woven with meticulous detail using extruded spaghetti like strands. Each flower is hand-crafted, often petal by petal and carefully hand applied.

Casting

The moulds are filled to the top with slip, liquid clay. After the allotted time, the excess slip is poured off and the moulds are left to dry. As the piece dries it shrinks away from the mould and in time it can be gently separated. The slip has now become clay.

Fettling

Fettling is the skilled sharpening or delineation of the pattern. This intricate process also includes the elimination of seams, smoothing, rounding of edges and the fitting together of parts like handles.

Firing

Every piece of Belleek will go through upto 3 different firing processes in our kilns. This includes the 'biscuit' firing, the 'gloss' or glaze firing and the final 'enamel' firing.

Stamping

Perfect items that have passed quality control are given the famous Belleek trademark stamp. This stamp indicates when the product was made and that your Belleek is authentic.

Painting

Any decorated pieces of Belleek will be hand painted using enamel paints before it's final firing process to 'fix' the enamel and stamp.

Belleek's reputation has been built on product excellence. Only Belleek of the highest quality is ever put on sale.

Back in 1857, the pottery's founder John Caldwell Bloomfield declared that any piece with even the slightest flaw should be destroyed.

Over 169 years later, this golden rule is strictly adhered to. The result is perfection.

Trademarks & Collectors Society

Belleek Trademarks

All Belleek marks, with minor exceptions, include symbols which are unmistakably Irish, i.e. the Irish Wolfhound with the head turned to face one of Ireland's distinctive round towers - the model for which is believed to have been Devenish Round Tower on the Lower Lough Erne's Devenish Island. The Irish harp and two sprigs of shamrock border the ends of the banner at the base of the design which carries the single word BELLEEK in capital letters. The years given denote the approximate date of production.

Belleek Classic: Tableware

Shamrock

Shamrock Tableware, with its basketweave, is a timeless design first created in the 1880's. The simplicity of the pattern is based on the weave used in wickerwork baskets, once a common feature of both town and country. The design also cleverly uses the stems of the shamrocks to shape such features as the handles and details of the design. It remains an iconic collection, one symbolic of Belleek's long craft tradition. Tableware also available with gold rim.

Claddagh

The Belleek Claddagh Collection is inspired by the history of the Claddagh which goes back over four hundred years when a Spanish goldsmith fell in love with a girl from the Claddagh Village. He crafted the first Claddagh ring for her. Since then the Claddagh ring has become a token of love throughout the world. Its symbols of a heart under a crown held by hands represent love, friendship and loyalty.

Edition Piece 2026

Irish Lighthouse LED

Traditional style lighthouses can be spotted all around Ireland's coast line and waterways. The quintessential lighthouse is usually a tower shaped structure designed to emit light and serve as a beacon for navigational aid for maritime pilots at both sea and on inland waterways.

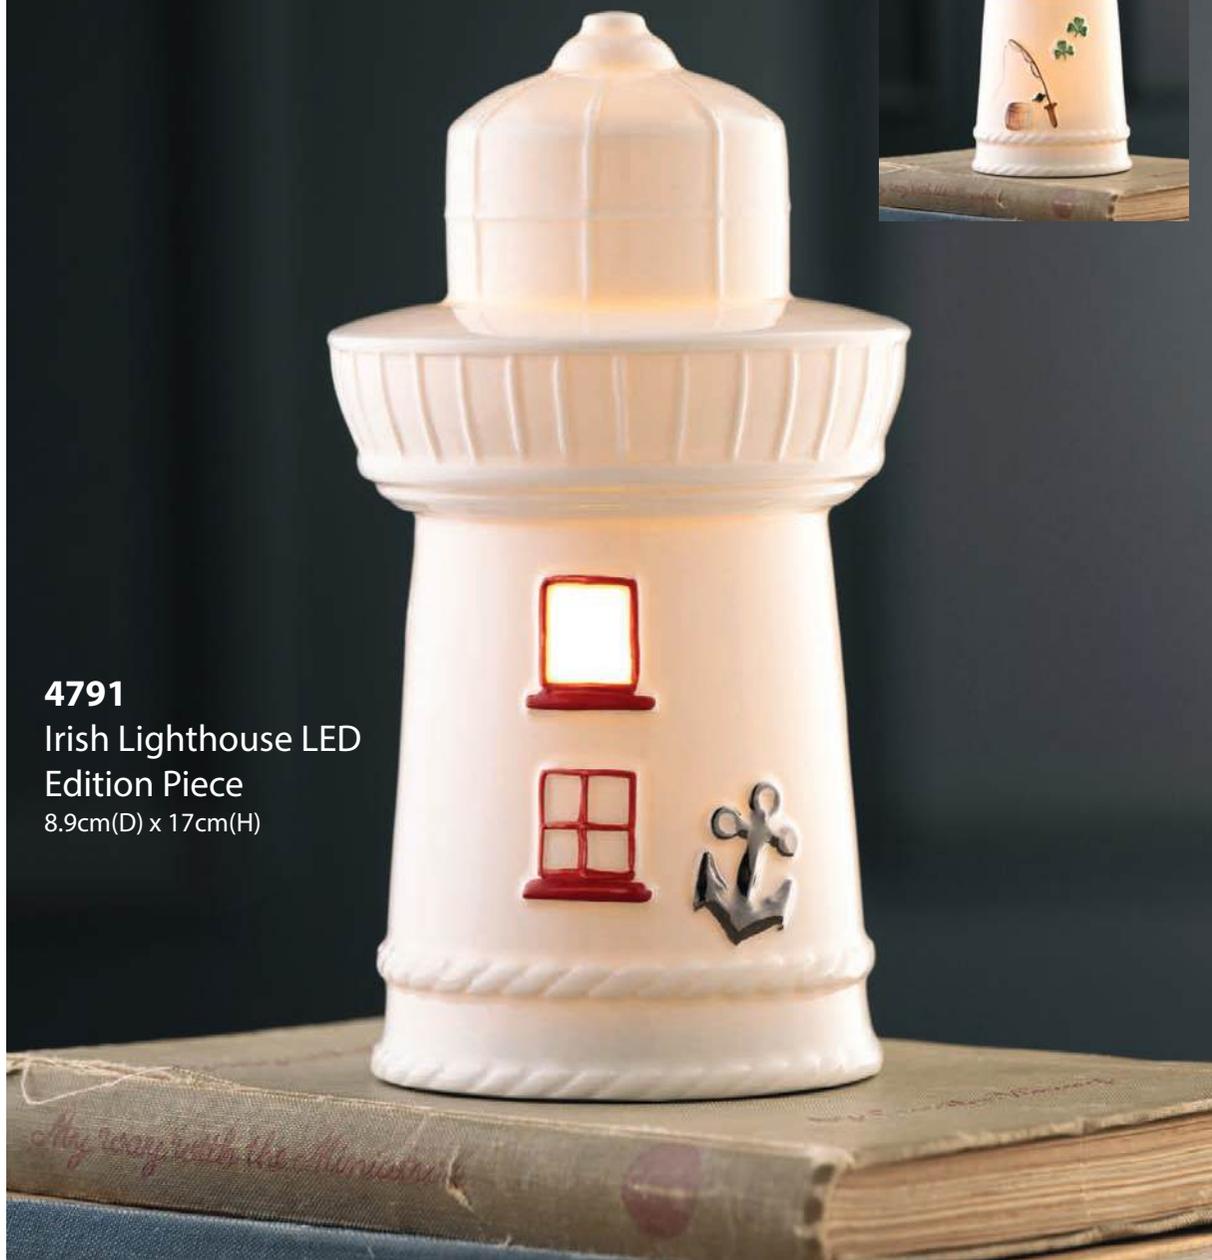

This particular lighthouse has been inspired by the Clare Island Lighthouse. Established in 1806 by the first Marquess of Sligo, John Denis Browne. The Clare Island Lighthouse was recently renovated and is now a guesthouse, while its optic is on permanent rotating display at the World of Glass Museum and Visitor Centre in North West England. This LED features Belleek's iconic hand painted Shamrocks, an anchor and traditional fishing gear. The LED illuminates the parian body creating a soft glow and the pierced window detail allows for a brighter light to shine through.

This beautiful piece will only be available for 2026.

Annual Basket

Annual Basket 2026 - Irish Flax

Linen is a natural fabric produced from the flax plant, which has distinctive purple blue flowers. From prehistory people produced the cloth domestically in Ireland and Irish linen was highly regarded. For many years flax and linen production was an integral part of Irish industry. Growing flax for the linen industry or weaving linen supplemented many an Irish family's incomes from farming. All the family were involved in the production. In the 17th and 18th century many Huguenots sought refuge in Ireland to escape religious persecution from France, bringing with them top weaving skills and some of the most advanced looms of the time. This influx of skill and machinery later paired with new advancements in water power created a boom in linen production in Ireland.

Today most of the linen industry has left Ireland with just a small number of producers left, however it is still considered a rich part of Irish History.

The Annual Basket comes with a special backstamp and a Certificate of Authenticity. Only available for 2026.

Baskets

The creation of each Belleek Basket tells us a story about the amazing art of Belleek Basket making. Basket and flower making was introduced to Belleek by William Henshall who came to work for Belleek Pottery in the late 1860's. Over the next forty years he developed the craft and trained the local craftsmen in the necessary skills. These in turn passed their skills down through the following generations to the present day. Each basket comes gift boxed and with a Certificate of Authenticity.

Monea Castle - Based in County Fermanagh this detailed Belleek Votive represents a local landmark, Monea Castle. Built in 1618 for the Hamilton Family, it was both a home and place of protection. The ruins are on private farmland and can still be visited.

A pretty example of an Irish Castle, the LED emits a soft glow highlighting the hand crafted stone detailing which is also hand painted. The piece is also embossed with a vine of flowers and a lucky shamrock on the reverse with the base finished with a gold line.

The Quiet Man Cottage Votive - The cottage used as the house belonging to the "Quiet Man" was located in Cong, Co. Mayo situated in the west of Ireland. The cottage, then lived in by the Joyce family, was used as part of the set in the 1952 film called the Quiet Man starring John Wayne and Maureen O'Hara as well as then veteran actor Barry Fitzgerald. John Ford who made it as homage to his own Irish background directed the film. He was born Sean Aloysius Feeney O'Ferna in 1895 in Maine, the youngest of thirteen children born to Irish immigrants.

The film received a total of seven Academy Award nominations (including Best Picture, Best Supporting Actor - Victor McLaglen, Best Screenplay - Frank Nugent, Best Art Direction and Best Sound) and won two Oscars Best Cinematography - Winton Hoch and Archie Stout, and Ford (at 57 years of age) won his fourth and final Best Director Oscar, establishing a record that is still unbeaten. The Quiet Man cottage since then has become a memorable and popular tourist attraction in the village of Cong.

The "Quiet Man" cottage votive is a lovely gift to give and a much appreciated addition to any Belleek Collection.

Angel of Protection

In ancient Ireland there was a belief that everyone had a guardian angel to protect them from danger or harm. Thus the idea for the Belleek Angel of Protection came into being.

This cute kneeling angel is holding a shamrock, a symbol of good luck and good fortune and will serve as a reminder that everyone has their own guardian angel, to keep one safe and well for all the ups and downs of everyday life.

Annual Ornament

Kilkenny Castle Annual Ornament 2026

Kilkenny Castle was founded soon after the Norman conquest of Ireland and was originally a fortified structure designed to control a fording point on the River Nore. It was seen as a symbol of Norman occupation. However, over the years the castle has been rebuilt, extended and adapted to suit changing uses and circumstances.

Today Kilkenny Castle is largely a Victorian remodelling of the thirteenth century defensive Castle and is open to the public. Set in 50 acres of rolling parkland, this attraction also features a formal terraced rose garden, woodlands housing an abundance of wildlife and a man-made lake that were added in the nineteenth century.

Only available for 2026.

Classic Ornaments

The history of the Irish telephone box began with its first installation on Dublin's Dawson Street in 1925, making the start of a countrywide network of public communication kiosks.

The iconic British red phone box resulted from a post office competition in 1924 and was introduced in London in 1926. In 1935 it was replaced with a new design which is still in existence today.
