Handcrafted in Ireland Since 1857

Each piece of Belleek is created by 16 individual artisans. From design to production to quality control at our historic pottery, a process that has changed very little since 1857.

Design

Belleek's dedicated team of in-house designers carry out trend and market research to bring new designs to the marketplace. Computer aided drawings and traditional drawings are produced and carefully selected.

Modelling

A three-dimensional plaster or clay model is created from the design drawings. This is an accurate reproduction of the design showing every intricate detail and surface relief.

Moulds

An initial mould will be made from the three-dimensional model, a second mould will be made from this first mould. This second mould this is called the 'case mould' and will be used to make all the subsequent working moulds. Belleek's Master Mould Chamber contains Block Moulds dating as far back as the 1860's.

Basket and Flower Making

Belleek's world famous Baskets and flowers are intricately hand woven with meticulous detail using extruded spaghetti like strands. Each flower is hand-crafted, often petal by petal and carefully hand applied.

Casting

The moulds are filled to the top with slip, liquid clay. After the allotted time, the excess slip is poured off and the moulds are left to dry. As the piece dries it shrinks away from the mould and in time it can be gently separated. The slip has now become clay.

Fettling

Fettling is the skilled sharpening or delineation of the pattern. This intricate process also includes the elimination of seams, smoothing, rounding of edges and the fitting together of parts like handles.

Firing

Every piece of Belleek will go through upto 3 different firing processes in our kilns. This includes the 'biscuit' firing, the 'gloss' or glaze firing and the final 'enamel' firing.

Stamping

Perfect items that have passed quality control are given the famous Belleek trademark stamp. This stamp indicates when the product was made and that your Belleek is authentic.

Painting

Any decorated pieces of Belleek will be hand painted using enamel paints before it's final firing process to 'fix' the enamel and stamp.

Contents

Belleek’s reputation has been built on product excellence. Only Belleek of the highest quality is ever put on sale.

Back in 1857, the pottery’s founder John Caldwell Bloomfield declared that any piece with even the slightest flaw should be destroyed.

Over 169 years later, this golden rule is strictly adhered to. The result is perfection.

Trademarks & Collectors Society

Belleek Trademarks

All Belleek marks, with minor exceptions, include symbols which are unmistakably Irish, i.e. the Irish Wolfhound with the head turned to face one of Ireland's distinctive round towers - the model for which is believed to have been Devenish Round Tower on the Lower Lough Erne's Devenish Island. The Irish harp and two sprigs of shamrocks border the ends of the banner at the base of the design which carries the single word BELLEEK in capital letters. The years given denote the approximate date of production.

Shamrock

Shamrock Tableware, with its basketweave, is a timeless design first created in the 1880's. The simplicity of the pattern is based on the weave used in wickerwork baskets, once a common feature of both town and country. The design also cleverly uses the stems of the shamrocks to shape such features as the handles and details of the design. It remains an iconic collection, one symbolic of Belleek's long craft tradition. Tableware also available with gold rim.

Irish Lighthouse LED

Traditional style lighthouses can be spotted all around Irelands coast line and waterways. The quintessential lighthouse is usually a tower shaped structure designed to emit light and serve as a beacon for navigational aid for maritime pilots at both sea and on inland waterways.

This particular lighthouse has been inspired by the Clare Island Lighthouse. Established in 1806 by the first Marquess of Sligo, John Denis Browne. The Clare Island Lighthouse was recently renovated and is now a guesthouse, while its optic is on permanent rotating display at the World of Glass Museum and Visitor Centre in North West England. This LED features Belleek's iconic hand painted shamrocks, an anchor and traditional fishing gear. The LED illuminates the parian body creating a soft glow and the pierced window detail allows for a brighter light to shine through.

This beautiful piece will only be available for 2026.

Annual Basket

Annual Basket 2026 - Irish Flax

Linen is a natural fabric produced from the flax plant, which has distinctive purple blue flowers. From prehistory people produced the cloth domestically in Ireland and Irish linen was highly regarded. For many years flax and linen production was an integral part of Irish industry. Growing flax for the linen industry or weaving linen supplemented many an Irish family's incomes from farming. All the family were involved in the production. In the 17th and 18th century many Huguenots sought refuge in Ireland to escape religious persecution from France, bringing with them top weaving skills and some of the most advanced looms of the time. This influx of skill and machinery later paired with new advancements in water power created a boom in linen production in Ireland.

Today most of the linen industry has left Ireland with just a small number of producers left, however it is still considered a rich part of Irish History.

Baskets

The creation of each Belleek Basket tells us a story about the amazing art of Belleek Basket making. Basket and flower making was introduced to Belleek by William Henshall who came to work for Belleek Pottery in the late 1860's. Over the next forty years he developed the craft and trained the local craftsmen in the necessary skills. These in turn passed their skills down through the following generations to the present day. Each basket comes gift boxed and with a Certificate of Authenticity.

The Quiet Man Cottage Votive - The cottage used as the house belonging to the "Quiet Man" was located in Cong, Co. Mayo situated in the west of Ireland. The cottage, then lived in by the Joyce family, was used as part of the set in the 1952 film called the Quiet Man starring John Wayne and Maureen O'Hara as well as then veteran actor Barry Fitzgerald. John Ford who made it as homage to his own Irish background directed the film. He was born Sean Aloysius Feeney O'Fearná in 1895 in Maine, the youngest of thirteen children born to Irish immigrants.

The film received a total of seven Academy Award nominations (including Best Picture, Best Supporting Actor - Victor McLaglen, Best Screenplay - Frank Nugent, Best Art Direction and Best Sound) and won two Oscars Best Cinematography - Winton Hoch and Archie Stout, and Ford (at 57 years of age) won his fourth and final Best Director Oscar, establishing a record that is still unbeaten.

The Quiet Man cottage since then has become a memorable and popular tourist attraction in the village of Cong.

The "Quiet Man" cottage votive is a lovely gift to give and a much appreciated addition to any Belleek Collection.

Kilkenny Castle Annual Ornament 2026

Kilkenny Castle was founded soon after the Norman conquest of Ireland and was originally a fortified structure designed to control a fording point on the River Nore. It was seen as a symbol of Norman occupation. However, over the years the castle has been rebuilt, extended and adapted to suit changing uses and circumstances.

Today Kilkenny Castle is largely a Victorian remodelling of the thirteenth century defensive Castle and is open to the public. Set in 50 acres of rolling parkland, this attraction also features a formal terraced rose garden, woodlands housing an abundance of wildlife and a man-made lake that were added in the nineteenth century.

Only available for 2026.

CRYSTAL

Galway Crystal has long been one of the world's best known and loved brands of traditionally crafted crystal.

Nestled in the heart of the West of Ireland, on the shores of Galway Bay, Galway Crystal is steeped in the rich and diverse heritage of this unique city.

Our inspiration comes from the sheer beauty of the surrounding countryside - Connemara, Galway Bay and Lough Corrib and from the wealth of history and folklore which is synonymous with Galway, the famous City of the Tribes.

Our beautiful ranges of tabletop, stemware, barware, giftware, lighting, textiles and jewellery reflect these influences in their timeless elegance.

Galway Crystal does not shy away from the modern look however with the creation of simplistic fluid yet stylish patterns that reflect the modern lifestyle.

Weddings

Engraving is especially popular with weddings, to mark the date on Champagne Flutes for the Bridal toast, a item for a gift or for wedding favours.

Clubs / Sporting

Does your club have its own logo? We can use this on your prizes, or if not we can use a symbol specific to your club activity.

Heraldry

We have a vast database of Irish Coat of Arms, very popular for anniversaries and weddings. If your coat of arms is not one of Irish origin, simply supply a copy.

Corporate

For long service awards or sponsor pieces, engraving with your company logo will ensure the prominence of your corporate image.
